About our Vacancy:

We are looking for a highly motivated, hard working Progress Partner to work with SEN pupils who experience social, emotional or mental health challenges.

You will help them to engage positively with learning and school life. The role involves building trusting relationships, promoting emotional regulation, and providing tailored academic support.

You will work closely with teachers and pastoral staff to implement behaviour strategies, create a calm and structured environment, and adapt learning materials to meet individual needs. You will also help pupils develop confidence, resilience and social skills, contributing to a nurturing, inclusive atmosphere where every child can thrive.

We can offer you the opportunity to make life-changing differences to children, and work with supportive, caring, dedicated staff and governing body.

Bromley Beacon Academy is an all through Social, Emotional and Mental Health School (SEMH) in Bromley, offering a specialist educational provision to pupils in Key Stages 1 to 5 who have an EHCP or Statement for SEMH as their primary need. The school converted to an academy in February 2016 and joined London South East Academies Trust. London South East Academies Trust, part of the Elevare Group, is a thriving multi-academy Trust consisting of schools offering special, mainstream and alternative provision.

We offer a comprehensive and bespoke CPD programme throughout the year and have a good record of upskilling staff at all levels.
