About Us

Acre Wood is a specialist school for pupils and students aged 4-19 with a wide range of special education needs, including Profound and Multiple learning Difficulties (PMLD), Severe Learning Difficulties (SLD) and Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD). It is set across three sites (primary, secondary and sixth form) located closely together in Crowborough, East Sussex.

Our school benefits from the regular support of Speech and Language Therapists, Physiotherapy services and Occupational Therapists provided by the Children's Integrated Therapy and equipment Service (CITEs) within Kent NHS and commissioned by the Local Authority. We also have, as part of our team, a Special Schools Nursing Sister from East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust who supports the health and wellbeing of our students.

About the Trust

Our school is part of London South East Academies Trust - a multi academy trust sponsored by London South East Colleges. In 2024 the Trust was formally recognised and awarded as the TES Small Trust of the Year.

Our vision is to create a future where every child, in every school, can flourish every day.

- Give all children an inspirational school offer
- Ensure the educational achievement of every child and young person entrusted to us.
- Have a relentless focus on accelerating learning
- Reward ambition and high aspirations through all of our schools
